

BOSTON COLLEGE
Center for Christian-Jewish Learning
Presents as part of its Jewish-Christian Lecture Series

JAMES CARROLL

moderated by Dr. Jesper Svartvik as part of his seminar
From Foes to Friends: Jewish-Christian Relations

CONSTANTINE'S SWORD Twenty Years Later – A Retrospective

Published in 2001, James Carroll's book Constantine's Sword: The Church and the Jews, magnificently and with soul-searching, surveys the 2000-year history of Jewish-Christian relations. Now, 20 years later, the author – together with Dr. Svartvik's students Jack Engelmann '22 and Matthew Hanauer '22 – discusses the impact of the book, what has been achieved, and what still remains to be done.

Monday, April 25, 2022

James Carroll is the author of twelve novels, most recently The Cloister, which the New York Times called “Incandescent” and nine works of non-fiction, including The Truth at the Heart of the Lie, which was named a Best Book of 2021 by Publishers Weekly. Other books include the National Book Award winning An American Requiem and House of War, which won the first PEN-John Kenneth Galbraith Award. His million-copy bestselling novel Mortal Friends will soon be re-issued by Blackstone Press. His oped column appeared weekly in The Boston Globe for twenty-three years. He is a Fellow of the American Academy of Art & Sciences, and a Founding Member of Writers for Democratic Action.

