Her success on SURVIVOR led CBS to select her as host of Around the World for Free, a groundbreaking series in which she traveled across four continents without money, relying entirely on the generosity of strangers. Parvati challenges others to dream big, take risks, and forge lasting connections. Her journey proves that the most significant rewards come not from playing it safe, but from daring to leap.

LEADERSHIP THIS WEEK

Sign up to be an Eagle for a Day Host!

The Student Admission Program is looking for Carroll School students to become Eagle for a Day hosts this semester. Each year, the Admission Office hosts over 1,000 prospective students in the Eagle for a Day program. Visitors come to campus and are matched with a current student who would take them to class and to lunch and to see other parts of campus during a regular school day. Matches are usually made by major and school. It is a much more personal visit than their original campus tour and it tends to be a fun and positive day for the guests and the hosts. If you are interested in being a host, please reach out to Chris O'Brien, SAP advisor at obrienfx@bc.edu or stop by the Student Admission Program Office in Devlin Hall Room 105.

Elevator Pitch Competition Application Extension!

Chance to showcase your creativity and get a chance to win from a pool of $1,500 in prizes. To apply, all you need is an idea! Each student team will prepare a 60-second pitch for their business idea and present it in front of a panel of experienced entrepreneurs and venture capitalists, who will determine the best pitches.

Applications are open to all majors and are now due by Monday, October 6th at 11:59pm! Feel free to email startatshea@gmail.com with any questions you may have. Apply here.

Grab a few of your classmates and take your professor to lunch (on us!) The Carroll School of Management will give you a dining card to use at any of the on-campus dining hall locations to have coffee or lunch with one of your professors. Space is limited so reserve yours today!
