

THEO2327 Perspectives on War, Aggression, and Conflict Resolution I

The Faith, Peace, and Justice Program at Boston College sponsors this course as an introduction to the field of Peace Studies.

This course develops an interdisciplinary approach to the study of war and conflict and investigates alternatives to their resolution in contemporary global society. The course is organized along multidisciplinary lines, with faculty members from various academic departments responsible for each topic of discussion. This interdisciplinary approach demonstrates the varied and complex perspectives on the causes of war and conflict and attempts to develop, out of the resources of these respective disciplines, intelligent insights into the resolution of conflicts, and the development of alternatives to war.

School	Credits	Course Level
Morrissey College of Arts and Sciences	3	Undergraduate

Requirements Fulfilled (please consult your Degree Audit for specific information).

Elective Requirements