CAREER SUMMARY:

- As a professor of philosophy, I use creative educational models and hands-on approach in addressing contemporary philosophical/social/ethical/religious studies' issues from a cosmopolitan and multicultural perspective. Boston College (Jesuit University) PULSE Program "service learning" education embodies what creative education is to me.

I have published some books, book chapters and peer-reviewed articles on current philosophical, cultural, social and political issues.

- Became an Instructor of Philosophy and Critical/Creative Thinking at the College/University level. William Paterson University (Department of Philosophy), Wayne, New Jersey was central to my academic progress (2016).

- In quest for higher challenges and creative scholarship, I have taken some research/mentorship projects on developing pedagogical skills and some constructive university courses with various degrees: BPhil, BTheo/Religious Studies (a Masters' equivalent to World Education System (WES), MA Phil, MA Public Ethics and PhD in Philosophy.

- Disposed to make some robust contributions to university education for students' success and community development. Experienced as a Director/Trustee of a humanitarian educational project for youth empowerment, with 100% success in community development policies.

- Over 20 years of progressive experience in different sectors of youth education.

- Experienced as a Director of Education (Community College/Adult Career Centre), an Administrator, a High School Principal, worked on accreditation with the Ministry of Education.

- Served as Dean of Studies for a Junior Scholasticate (High School level).

MEMBER:

- International Journal of Philosophy (Editorial Board member).
- Canadian Aristotle Society.
- The Abuja School of Social and Political Thought (ASSPT).
- Alternative Perspectives and Global Concerns, Ottawa Scholarly Organization (A consultative status organization with UN-ECOSOC (UN committee of the States on NGOs, UNESCO)). (Co-Director).
- International Jacques Ellul Society (IJES).
- Canadian Jacques Maritain Association (CJMA).
