Opening lead: Spade king

After West had opened three spades, South landed at five clubs, unmakable on a heart opening, but nevertheless a better contract than five diamonds, which cannot be made on any lead. West opened the spade king and dummy's ace won the trick. As a discard was king and dummy's ace won the trick, and could that he would not be losing a heart trick, and could therefore afford to lose a trump. So he banged down ace and another of that suitrupp. So he banged down ace and another of that suitrupp. So he banged down ace and another of that suitrupp. So he banged down ace and another of that suitrupp. So he had gad and the same and the suitrupp. So he banged down ace and another of that suitrupp. So he had gad and the suitrupp. So he had finester in the first protected spans a similar trump from the table ansead, he is protected spans a similar trump from the table ansead, he is protected spans a intir round of spades, as dummy can ruff high.

Kosygin Meets

With UN Envoy To Middle East

United Press International

MOSCOW - Gunnar Jarring the United Nations Middle East peace negotiator, conferred today in Moscow with Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin in his search for peace. The Russians have rearmed the Arab nations since their resounding defeat by Israel in the war a year ago. Jarring is the Swedish ambassador to Moscow but he has spent most of his time last Summer in the Mideast as a special emissary for Secretary General Thant.

So far he has been unable to get the two sides to the negotiating table and there have been almost daily border incidents between Israeli and Arab forces.

His talks with deputy foreign minister Vasili Kuznetsov and Kosygin took on added significance because of the forthcoming visit to Moscow of Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser. Nasser arrives in Moscow four days after Jarring returns to Stockholm en route to U.N. headquarters in New York.
